

Interior Design Firm Incorporation in Singapore

Background:

A distinguished Interior Design firm based in Singapore, specializing in residential and commercial segments, experienced a surge in market demand and customer loyalty. Fueled by exceptional design ideas, the client envisioned substantial growth within the Singapore Interior Design market. To formalize their expansion strategy, they sought to establish a robust company structure in Singapore. Turning to IMC Group for guidance, the client aimed to navigate the complexities of company incorporation and ensure a seamless entry into the business landscape.

Challenges

Determining the optimal business structure aligned with the firm's scope and business goals posed challenges during expansion.

Navigating company incorporation intricacies, obtaining permits, licenses, and facilitating employment visas presented formidable hurdles.

Grasping diverse benefits from different Singapore government bodies for incorporated companies added complexity, requiring careful consideration.
